Job Posting

If you are a forward-thinking, strategic leader who is committed to our vision of "helping people improve their financial lives", we welcome you to apply to join the iQ Credit Union Board of Directors.
Our board is amazing! They're collaborative, approachable, and all-around exceptional human beings who ensure we live out the credit union philosophy of 'people helping people' each and every day.

During your 3-year term as a paid board, you will actively participate in setting the strategic direction of the credit union, ensuring sound governance, and providing executive oversight on behalf of our 100,000+ members who look to us to provide simple, honest financial solutions.

We are committed to creating, encouraging, and nurturing a safe and inclusive experience for our members and employees. Our board experiences are no exception. We recognize and embrace each person's unique contributions, so we can better serve our members and community. We welcome those with unique backgrounds, working styles, and skillsets. We are seeking applicants from underrepresented groups, including women, BIPOC, LGBTQ individuals, and others, to apply.

Successful candidate qualifications:

- Understanding of the credit union difference, iQ's membership and community impact focus areas.
- Ability to adapt to changing economic conditions and focus on future strategies that bring more value to members.
- Commitment to continuous learning and professional development.
- Knowledge of financial reporting.
- Ability to utilize data in decision making.
- Demonstrated ability to critically & respectfully examine and question issues.
- Strong communication skills.
- Willingness to actively contribute to assigned activities.
- Experience or knowledge in the following areas (preferred): non-profit community partnerships, digital banking, data analytics, DEI, or legal support.
- Live/work within our field of membership
    - WA – Washington State
    - OR – Columbia, Washington, Clackamas, Yamhill, Multnomah & Hood River Counties

If you want to apply your passion for the Pacific Northwest to a board position devoted to improving the financial lives of our members and communities we call home, we'd love to hear from you.
